A charming 3-bedroom semi-detached home nestled in the serene and popular seaside town of Sandown.

Features include double glazing and gas central heating, a through living and dining room that opens to decking and the garden and a newly built summerhouse. Perfect for relaxing or entertaining guests the summerhouse could also be utilised as a home office or gym. Close to local amenities including transport links.

While the house boasts many desirable qualities, it is worth noting that the bathroom could benefit from a refit to enhance its functionality and appeal.
