The bungalow that makes a downsize that little bit more comfortable.

When moving from a larger family home to something a little smaller, the adjustment to smaller living accommodation can often feel like a big compromise, but with this extended linkdetached bungalow, it shouldn't feel like too much of an adjustment with its generous extended living and kitchen space. This single storey home offers two bedrooms, one larger than the other with built-in storage, a modern refitted shower room, a separate utility room behind the garage, as well as a hallway cupboard & loft space for all of your storage needs.

Further highlights of this property includes your own garage with driveway to front plus an enclosed low maintenance garden to enjoy when the sun comes to visit. With no onward chain in popular residential location, don't hesitate to book a viewing before
