This three bedroom period family home is offered to the local sales market with generous proportions throughout.

There are two spacious reception rooms including a front aspect living room with feature fireplace as well as a full width dining room that leads through to the recently replaced galley-style kitchen. Across the first floor you'll find two double bedrooms (both with built in storage) plus the typical smaller third bedroom. There is also a recently replaced shower-room, an airing cupboard and loft access for all your storage needs, completing the internal accommodation.

To the rear, you'll find a good-sized enclosed courtyard garden with two brick out-houses, a WC as well as a single garage & gated rear access.

Viewing access is immediate so get in touch today.
