Some people have houses, others have homes - this is a charming family home that's been decorated & presented to give a real sense of warmth throughout. Located at the far end of a popular cul-de-sac within The Chesters estate, this three bedroom terraced home is being offered to the local sales market with no related onward chain. There are two principal reception spaces that include a front aspect living room & a full width modern kitchen/dining room from which you have direct access to your enclosed low maintenance rear garden.

These homes have in the past become great options for first time buyers taking their initial steps on the property ladder, landlords looking for a safe rental investment or indeed those descending the property ladder in search of a downsize - whatever your reasons, this really attractive property within a desirable postcode sector with it's own garage is ready to be explored.
