Adams Estate Agents are delighted to market one of the finest homes that Widnes has to offer, located in a prime cul-de-sac position of Redrow's sought after Lancaster Place development. 'The Sandringham' house style would be right at home on any country estate. And that quality, craftsmanship and sheer style continues throughout, creating a superb home full of classic character and charm. Downstairs effortlessly combines formal and family spaces. The formal dining room, lounge and study to the front are matched by the spacious family area stretching right across the back - from the second kitchen/boot room through to kitchen and breakfast area, to the family lounge. Two sets of bi-fold doors keep the space bright and bring the outside in. Splendid gardens to front and rear, the rear offers a particularly complimentary private setting with a sunny aspect. Double garage and ample off road parking provision. Council Tax G. EPC Rating B.
