

Says Lane, Langford

£645,000

🛏 3 🚗 2 🚗 3

A glorious three/four bedroom detached stone cottage situated in a lovely semi-rural position in Langford. Packed with original character features with beautiful fireplaces, exposed beams and period details, there is plenty of off street parking, a large garage, stone outbuilding which is currently utilised as a self contained one bedroom annexe and separate ensuite which could also be a great home office or even a wonderful hobby space. To the front is a large garden leading to a pretty stone courtyard to the side, and a small but private walled garden to the rear. Contact the office for more information

Key Features

- Beautiful Chocolate Box detached stone cottage
- Three/four bedrooms including an impressive master suite with vaulted ceilings and en-suite bathroom
- Two atmospheric reception rooms, plus kitchen with 'Rayburn' and breakfast room
- Pretty gardens to three aspects
- Churchill School and 6th form catchment
- Peaceful semi-rural position
- Lots of original period features including fireplaces, painted stone walls and exposed beams
- Large garage with separate utility room and ample off street parking
- Stone outbuilding housing the 4th bedroom with shower room, with potential for a home office
- No onward chain

