This impressive two-bedroom property offers the best of both worlds: period charm and modern functionality. The owners have thoughtfully extended the ground floor to create a stunning space for family gatherings, complete with sleek parquet flooring, a bright and airy roof lantern skylight, and a modern kitchen with everything you need to whip up culinary delights. To the front is a more formal reception room with elegant period details, large window and open working fireplace for those cold winter nights. Upstairs, you'll find a generously sized main bedroom with ample built-in storage, a luxurious four-piece modern bathroom, and a comfortable second double bedroom.

The location of this house is just as impressive. Conference Road is situated moments from the centre of Abbey Wood where you can enjoy fast transport links to central London via the Elizabeth line and National rail. .
