Situated in a sought-after tree-lined Victorian terrace, just a few minutes' walk from Brockley Station, this beautifully presented two-bedroom ground floor apartment with private garden is being sold chain free.

The distinctively decorated two-bedroom property boasts tastefully restored period features, original wooden floors and a modern kitchen-breakfast room. In the front reception room, a tiled Victorian fireplace and bay window overlooking the rose-lined front courtyard make for a relaxing and light filled space.

In the master bedroom, a wide bay window opens on to the leafy rear garden. The characterful and newly installed bathroom features a freestanding bath, reclaimed wooden floor, butler sink, and brass and nickel pipework. Additional storage is provided by a spacious cellar.
