This stunning semi-detached property on Birmingham Road, Shenstone Wood End, comes to the market boasting a vast array of attractive features, from the spectacular breakfast kitchen/diner to the generous room sizes throughout and all round exceptional presentation throughout. The semi-rural village of Shenstone is always a highly sought after area, with scenic walks and countryside all around whilst having various transport links, major supermarkets and highly rated schools all easily accessible, with Shenstone railway station being just over half a mile away, so it's safe to say that the location lives up to the property.
