The Paddock, Hedge Barton

£150,000

🛏️ 2 🚿 1 🛋️ 1

This well presented park home is located in the heart of Fordcombe on the Hedge Barton site, which is designed for the over 50s.

The accommodation comprises; 2 double bedrooms, 1 bathroom, lounge/dining area and kitchen. Entering the park home you are welcomed into the bright and spacious lounge which is flooded with natural light. Moving through you are greeted into the kitchen offering ample lower and upper storage cupboards, sleek counter tops, wood effect flooring, space for appliances and an alternative entrance into the property. There are 2 double bedrooms, both flooded with natural light and bedroom 2 also provides convenient built in storage. The bathroom is equipped with a bath with shower over, tiled walls, a WC and wash basin, there is also a large storage cupboard. Located next to the bathroom in the inner hallway there is an additional storage cupboards perfect for storing coats and shoes.

Situated in Fordcombe, a small village in the pleasant Weald of Kent, the park is located on a quiet country lane and backs onto open countryside. The nearest large town is Tunbridge Wells approximately 5 miles away, with bus links from the centre of the village. The park itself is arranged in three sections and has a part-time on-site Warden who maintains the communal areas.

Purchasers should note that whilst you would be purchasing the park home outright (freehold) the land it sits on is rented and there is a fee payable for this of £233.63 per month.

Gas is supplied to the park home via LPG tanks. We believe that fresh water is supplied by a sub meter and charged by the site managers, waste water is billed directly from the water company and electricity is supplied via a sub meter and charged via the site managers. Pets are permitted (1 dog and 1 domestic cat (dogs subject to breed and should be kept on a lead). There is a car park for residents and visitors.
