Stunning detached bungalow located in Trehill Road in central Ivybridge. This detached bungalow is a well maintained and has gas central heating and double glazed windows and doors. The property is approached by a long drive leading to the car port and single garage and you enter the property into an entrance hallway that has two handy cupboards and doors leading into the lounge/diner and one into the kitchen. The fitted kitchen has a pleasant outlook over the mature front garden. The lounge/diner also faces the front and has a feature fireplace and access through to the bedrooms. The two double bedrooms face the rear, and both offer different features, the master bedroom has built in wardrobes and the second double has a door leading out to the garden room and then out to the garden. The rear garden is low maintenance and laid to patio with raised shrubs borders. Reference HM0163
