A beautifully presented semi-detached true bungalow; set on a good-sized plot in a sought after quiet cul-de-sac location of Ormskirk. The property is set over all one level and has been tastefully extended and decorated to a high standard throughout by the current homeowners. Briefly the accommodation comprises a living room, kitchen, 2 bedrooms, family bathroom and dining room opening into a big conservatory. Outside there is a beautifully presented front garden which offers ample parking and wrought iron gates leading to a side garden. To the rear there is a low maintenance private garden with a lawn and 2 paved patio areas. The property benefits from a 2 storey outbuilding which has been finished and renovated into a hairdressing salon, kitchen/utility and further reception/ bedroom on the first floor. Location allows easy access into Ormskirk town centre and all its associated amenities. Internal viewing is highly recommended.
