Available to rent from early July is this beautiful 4 bed detached executive home. Available long term and comes unfurnished.

Positioned next to an open green area is this immaculately presented family home. An attractive Bloor home being just 4 years old, the driveway big enough for three cars and the garage which has been converted into a room to suit many purposes.

The entrance hall is very inviting with the lounge spreading down one side of the house and the kitchen/diner/family room spreading down the other. The lounge to the left has 3 aspects making this room exceptionally light and the bay window is perfect for a snuggle chair to sit and look out over the green area outside. French doors open out onto the landscaped garden which has been beautifully maintained. The garage door from the garden takes you into the now extra reception room, originally built to be a music room but now a playroom, it
